Robert P. Wiemann, Chief
Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The District Director, Harlingen, Texas, denied the application for permission to reapply for admission. The matter is now before the Administrative Appeals Office (AAO) on appeal. The appeal will be rejected as untimely filed.

In order to properly file an appeal, the regulation at 8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a)(2)(i) provides that the affected party must file the complete appeal within 30 days of service of the unfavorable decision. If the decision was mailed, the appeal must be filed within 33 days. See 8 C.F.R. § 103.5a(b).

The record indicates that the district director issued the decision on October 31, 2005. It is noted that the district director properly gave notice to the applicant that he had 30 days to file the appeal with the district office. The applicant incorrectly filed the appeal with the AAO on December 9, 2005, or 39 days after the decision was issued. An appeal is not properly filed until the district office receives it. The AAO returned the appeal to the applicant and informed him that he had incorrectly filed the appeal with this office. Citizenship and Immigration Services (CIS) received the appeal on December 21, 2005, or 51 days after the decision was issued. Accordingly, the appeal was untimely filed.

The regulation at 8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a)(2)(v)(B)(2) states that, if an untimely appeal meets the requirements of a motion to reopen or a motion to reconsider, the appeal must be treated as a motion, and a decision must be made on the merits of the case. The official having jurisdiction over a motion is the official who made the last decision in the proceeding, in this case the district director, Harlingen, Texas. See 8 C.F.R. § 103.5(a)(1)(ii). The district director declined to treat the late appeal as a motion and forwarded the matter to the AAO.

As the appeal was untimely filed, the appeal must be rejected.

ORDER: The appeal is rejected.
