INSTRUCTIONS:

This is the decision in your case. All documents have been returned to the office which originally decided your case. Any further inquiry must be made to that office.

If you believe the law was inappropriately applied or the analysis used in reaching the decision was inconsistent with the information provided or with precedent decisions, you may file a motion to reconsider. Such a motion must state the reasons for reconsideration and be supported by any pertinent precedent decisions. Any motion to reconsider must be filed within 30 days of the decision that the motion seeks to reconsider, as required under 8 C.F.R. 103.5(a)(1)(i).

If you have new or additional information which you wish to have considered, you may file a motion to reopen. Such a motion must state the new facts to be proved at the reopened proceeding and be supported by affidavits or other documentary evidence. Any motion to reopen must be filed within 30 days of the decision that the motion seeks to reopen, except that failure to file before this period expires may be excused in the discretion of the Service where it is demonstrated that the delay was reasonable and beyond the control of the applicant or petitioner. Id.

Any motion must be filed with the office which originally decided your case along with a fee of $110 as required under 8 C.F.R. 103.7.

FOR THE ASSOCIATE COMMISSIONER,
EXAMINATIONS

Myra L. Roserly
for Robert P. Wiemann, Acting Director
Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The application for a reentry permit was denied by the Director, Nebraska Service Center, and is now before the Associate Commissioner for Examinations on appeal. The appeal will be dismissed.

The applicant is a native and citizen of the United Kingdom and a permanent resident of the United States, who seeks to obtain a reentry permit under section 223 of the Immigration and Nationality Act (the Act), 8 U.S.C. 1203. The director denied the application for a travel document after determining that the applicant failed to submit the required photos and therefore has not complied with the regulatory requirements regarding the submission of proper documents to support the application.

On appeal, the applicant indicates that a brief and/or evidence will be submitted to the AAO on or before October 31, 2000. To date, no additional evidence has been submitted. Therefore, the record must be considered complete.

8 C.F.R. 223.1(a) states that a reentry permit allows a permanent resident to apply for admission to the United States upon return from abroad during the period of the permit's validity without the necessity of obtaining a returning resident visa.

8 C.F.R.223.2(b)(1) states, in pertinent part, that except as otherwise provided in this section, an application may be approved if filed by a person who is in the United States at the time of application and is a lawful permanent resident or conditional permanent resident...

8 C.F.R.103.2(a)(1) states, in pertinent part, that every application, petition, appeal, motion, request or other document submitted on a form prescribed by this chapter shall be executed and filed in accordance with the instructions being hereby incorporated in to the particular section of the regulations requiring its submission...

8 C.F.R.103.2(b)(1) an applicant or petitioner must establish eligibility for a requested immigration benefit. An application or petition form must be completed as applicable and filed with any initial evidence required by regulation or by the instructions on the form. Any evidence submitted is considered part of the relating application or petition...

On March 31, 2000, the director requested the applicant to submit two color photos of himself.

The applicant failed to submit the required photos and, therefore, has not complied with the regulatory requirements regarding the submission of proper documents to support the application.

The burden of proof in these proceedings rests solely with the applicant. Section 291 of the Act, 8 U.S.C. 1361. The applicant has not met that burden.

ORDER: The appeal is dismissed.
