Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The application was denied by the Regional Immigration Attaché, Rome, Italy, and is now on appeal before the Administrative Appeals Office (AAO). The appeal will be summarily dismissed.

The applicant, a native of Afghanistan, seeks to obtain a refugee travel document pursuant to 8 C.F.R. § 223.1(b). The regional immigration attaché denied the application.

On Form I-290B, Notice of Appeal, the applicant states that he was granted asylum in the United States, traveled to Russia on business, and that his refugee travel document has expired. The applicant further indicates that a brief and/or evidence in support of the appeal will be submitted within 30 days of filing the appeal. As more than three months have passed and no additional documentation has been received, a decision will be rendered on the record at present.

The regulation at 8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a)(a)(v) states, in pertinent part, that:

An officer to whom an appeal is taken shall summarily dismiss any appeal when the party concerned fails to identify specifically any erroneous conclusion of law or statement of fact for the appeal.

Inasmuch as the applicant has failed to identify any erroneous conclusion of law or statement of fact as the basis for the appeal, the regulation mandates that it be summarily dismissed.

The burden of proof in these proceedings rests solely with the applicant. Section 291 of the Act, 8 U.S.C. § 1361. The applicant has not met that burden.

ORDER: The appeal is summarily dismissed.
