IN RE:

APPLICATION: Application for Travel Document Pursuant to Section 223 of the Immigration and Nationality Act, 8 U.S.C. § 1203.

ON BEHALF OF APPLICANT:

SELF-REPRESENTED

INSTRUCTIONS:

This is the decision of the Administrative Appeals Office in your case. All documents have been returned to the office that originally decided your case. Any further inquiry must be made to that office.

Robert P. Wiemann, Chief
Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The application was denied by the Director, Nebraska Service Center, and is now before the Administrative Appeals Office (AAO) on appeal. The appeal will be dismissed.

The applicant is a native and citizen of Senegal, who seeks to obtain a travel document (reentry permit) under section 223 of the Immigration and Nationality Act (the Act), 8 U.S.C. § 1203. The Director denied the application because the record failed to establish that the applicant is a lawful permanent resident or conditional resident of the United States as stated on his application. See Director's Decision, dated October 20, 2007.

On appeal, the applicant's Form I-290B states that his Form I-131 is attached. Form I-290B, dated October 26, 2007. The AAO notes that a copy of the applicant's Employment Authorization Card and a receipt notice for an Application for Employment Authorization Document are attached to the applicant's Form I-290B. The applicant's Form I-131 is not attached. In addition, the record includes no statements regarding the reason for an appeal.

8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a)(v) states in pertinent part that:

(v) Summary dismissal. An officer to whom an appeal is taken shall summarily dismiss any appeal when the party concerned fails to identify specifically any erroneous conclusion of law or statement of fact for the appeal.

The AAO finds that the applicant's appeal fails to identify any erroneous conclusion of law or statement of fact in the director's decision. The appeal is therefore summarily dismissed.

ORDER: The appeal is summarily dismissed.
