Robert P. Wiemann, Director
Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The application for temporary resident status was denied by the Director, Western Service Center, and is now before the Administrative Appeals Office (AAO) on appeal. The appeal will be dismissed.

The director denied the application because the applicant failed to submit additional documentation requested by Citizenship and Immigration Services (CIS), including evidence of identity.

Whenever an application for special agricultural worker status is denied or the status of a lawful temporary resident is terminated, the alien shall be given written notice setting forth the specific reasons for the denial on Form I-692, Notice of Denial. Form I-692 shall also contain advice to the applicant that he or she may appeal the decision and that such appeal must be taken within 30 days following service of the notification of decision. 8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a)(3)(i). An appeal received after the thirty (30) day period has tolled will not be accepted for processing. 8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a)(3)(iv). Form I-694, Notice of Appeal, shall be used to file the appeal and must be accompanied by the appropriate fee. 8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a)(3)(ii). Whenever a person has the right or is required to do some act within a prescribed period after the service of a notice upon him and the notice is served by mail, three days shall be added to the prescribed period. Service by mail is complete upon mailing. 8 C.F.R. § 103.5a(b).

The director issued the Notice of Denial on May 19, 1992, and sent it to the applicant via certified mail. Although the notice was mailed to the applicant's most current address of record at the time the decision was issued, it was later returned by the U.S. Postal Service. The applicant's appeal was received by CIS on March 10, 1993. As the applicant's appeal was submitted more than nine months after the issuance of the director's decision, it was untimely filed and, therefore, must be dismissed.

ORDER: The appeal is dismissed. This decision constitutes a final notice of ineligibility.
