Robert P. Wiemann
for:

Robert P. Wiemann, Director
Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The application for permanent resident status under the Legal Immigration Family Equity (LIFE) Act was denied by the Director, Missouri Service Center, and is now before the Administrative Appeals Office (AAO) on appeal. The appeal will be dismissed.

The director concluded the applicant had not established that he had applied for class membership in any of the requisite legalization class-action lawsuits prior to October 1, 2000 and, therefore, denied the application.

On appeal, the applicant, through his attorney, references having submitted documentation indicating he had previously applied for temporary resident status as a special agricultural worker under section 210 of the Immigration and Nationality Act (INA), and indicates the requirement for permanent resident status under the LIFE Act of demonstrating continuous residence or physical presence in the U.S. since January 1982. The applicant also asserts he had previously filed an application for temporary resident status under section 245A of the INA, but submits no documentation to support such assertion.

An applicant for permanent resident status under the LIFE Act must establish that before October 1, 2000, he or she filed a written claim with the Attorney General for class membership in any of the following legalization class-action lawsuits: Catholic Social Services, Inc. v. Meese, vacated sub nom. Reno v. Catholic Social Services, Inc., 509 U.S. 43 (1993), League of United Latin American Citizens v. INS, vacated sub nom. Reno v. Catholic Social Services, Inc., 509 U.S. 43 (1993), or Zambrano v. INS, vacated sub nom. Immigration and Naturalization Service v. Zambrano, 509 U.S. 918 (1993). See 8 C.F.R. 245a.10.

The regulations provide an illustrative list of documents that an applicant may submit to establish that he or she filed a written claim for class membership before October 1, 2000. Those regulations also permit the submission of "[a]ny other relevant document(s)." See 8 C.F.R. § 245a.14.

The applicant has failed to submit any documentation addressing this requirement. The applicant has provided documentation relating to an application he had previously filed for temporary resident status as a special agricultural worker under section 210 of the INA. The applicant timely filed an application for temporary resident status as a special agricultural worker under section 210 of the INA, and this application was subsequently denied. The applicant appealed the denial of his application, and this appeal was dismissed by the AAO. Section 1104 of the LIFE Act contains no provision allowing for the reopening and reconsideration of a timely filed and previously denied application for temporary resident status as a special agricultural worker under section 210 of the INA.

Given his failure to document having filed a timely written claim for class membership, the applicant is ineligible for permanent residence under section 1104 of the LIFE Act.

ORDER: The appeal is dismissed. This decision constitutes a final notice of ineligibility.
