DISCUSSION: The application for temporary resident status was denied by the Director, Western Service Center, and is now before the Administrative Appeals Office on appeal. The appeal will be dismissed.

The director denied the application because the applicant failed to report for two scheduled interviews, and failed to submit required documentation.

On appeal, the applicant simply states, "See attached." He furnishes evidence of residence, employment and identity, and provides statements from two family friends.

An applicant for temporary resident status must establish entry into the United States before January 1, 1982, and continuous residence in the United States in an unlawful status since such date and through the date the application is filed. Section 245A(a)(2) of the Immigration and Nationality Act, 8 U.S.C. § 1255a(a)(2).

An applicant for temporary resident status under section 245A of the Act has the burden to establish by a preponderance of the evidence that he or she has resided in the United States for the requisite periods, is admissible to the United States and is otherwise eligible for adjustment of status under this section. 8 C.F.R. § 245a.2(d)(5).

An applicant for temporary resident status must present documents establishing proof of identity, proof of residence, and proof of financial responsibility, as well as photographs, a completed Fingerprint Card (Form FD-258), and a fully completed Medical Examination for Aliens Seeking Adjustment of Status (Form I-693). 8 C.F.R. § 245a.2(d). In addition, the applicant must appear for a personal interview at the legalization office as scheduled. 8 C.F.R. § 245a.2(e)(1). The interview may be waived only for a child under the age of 14, or when it would be impractical because of the health or advanced age of the applicant. 8 C.F.R. § 245a.2(j).

On appeal, the applicant provides evidence of residence, identity and financial responsibility. However, he fails to furnish the required fingerprint card and medical report, and does not explain why he failed to report for the mandatory interview. Since these requirements may not be waived, the applicant is ineligible for temporary resident status.

An alien applying for adjustment of status has the burden of proving by a preponderance of evidence that he or she has continuously resided in an unlawful status in the United States from prior to January 1, 1982 through the date of filing, is admissible to the United States under the provisions of section 245A of the Act, 8 U.S.C. § 1255a, and is otherwise eligible for adjustment of status. 8 C.F.R. § 245a.2(d)(5). Due to his failure to report for the mandatory interview, and submit required documents, the applicant has not met this burden.

ORDER: The appeal is dismissed. This decision constitutes a final notice of ineligibility.
