IN RE: Applicant: [Redacted]

APPLICATION: Application for Status as a Temporary Resident pursuant to Section 245A of the Immigration and Nationality Act, as amended, 8 U.S.C. § 1255a

ON BEHALF OF APPLICANT: Self-represented

INSTRUCTIONS:

This is the decision of the Administrative Appeals Office in your case. All documents have been returned to the office that originally decided your case. If your appeal was sustained, or if your case was remanded for further action, you will be contacted. If your appeal was dismissed, you no longer have a case pending before this office, and you are not entitled to file a motion to reopen or reconsider your case.

Robert P. Wiemann, Director
Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The termination of temporary resident status by the Director, Western Service Center, is before the Administrative Appeals Office (AAO) on appeal. The appeal will be dismissed.

The director terminated the applicant's status because the applicant had failed to submit any evidence of residence.

The applicant appealed such decision, but her appeal form was misplaced. She was sent a notice on April 17, 1998 advising her to furnish a reconstructed appeal. However, no response was received.

An applicant is required to establish he or she entered the United States prior to January 1, 1982 and resided continuously in the United States through the date of filing of the application for temporary residence. See section 245A(a)(2)(A) of the Act, 8 U.S.C. § 1255.

As stated in 8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a)(3)(iv), any appeal which is filed that fails to state the reason for appeal, or is patently frivolous, will be summarily dismissed.

A review of the decision reveals the director accurately set forth a legitimate basis for termination of status. On appeal, the applicant has not presented additional evidence in support of the claim, and has not addressed the grounds stated for the termination. She has not responded, or inquired, since December 21, 1992. The appeal must therefore be summarily dismissed.

ORDER: The appeal is dismissed. This decision constitutes a final notice of ineligibility.
