DISCUSSION: The termination of temporary resident status by the Director, Western Service Center is now before the Administrative Appeals Office on appeal. The appeal will be dismissed.

The director terminated the applicant's status because the applicant had been convicted of three offenses.

On appeal, the applicant made no statement in opposition to the grounds of termination. He later requested a copy of the record. Although the request was complied with, the applicant never furnished any further statement or document.

In order to be eligible for temporary resident status as a special agricultural worker, an alien must have engaged in qualifying agricultural employment for at least 90 man-days during the twelve-month period ending May 1, 1986, and must be otherwise admissible under section 210(c) of the Act and not ineligible under 8 C.F.R. § 210.3(d). 8 C.F.R. § 210.3(a). An applicant has the burden of proving the above by a preponderance of the evidence. 8 C.F.R. § 210.3(b).

As stated in 8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a)(3)(iv), any appeal which is filed that fails to state the reason for appeal, or is patently frivolous, will be summarily dismissed. The applicant has failed to address the reasons stated for termination, and has not provided any additional evidence on appeal. The appeal must therefore be summarily dismissed.

ORDER: The appeal is dismissed. This decision constitutes a final notice of ineligibility.
