Robert P. Wiemann, Director
Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The termination of temporary resident status by the Director, Western Service Center is now before the Administrative Appeals Office on appeal. The appeal will be dismissed.

The director terminated the applicant's status because the applicant failed to provide criminal dispositions. On appeal, the applicant did not provide the dispositions. She requested that she be advised as to what further documentation was necessary. Subsequently, the director denied her application for permanent residence for the same reason. The applicant received such denial notice, and indicated that she would send in the dispositions later. However, she failed to do so.

As stated in 8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a)(3)(iv), any appeal which is filed that fails to state the reason for appeal, or is patently frivolous, will be summarily dismissed.

A review of the decision reveals the director accurately set forth a legitimate basis for termination of status. On appeal, the applicant has not presented additional evidence. Nor has she contested the basis for termination. The appeal must therefore be summarily dismissed.

ORDER: The appeal is dismissed. This decision constitutes a final notice of ineligibility.
