Applicant:

PETITION: Application for Status as a Temporary Resident pursuant to Section 210 of the Immigration and Nationality Act, as amended, 8 U.S.C. § 1160

ON BEHALF OF APPLICANT:

SELF-REPRESENTED

INSTRUCTIONS:

This is the decision of the Administrative Appeals Office in your case. All documents have been returned to the office that originally decided your case. If your appeal was sustained, or if the matter was remanded for further action, you will be contacted. If your appeal was dismissed, you no longer have a case pending before this office, and you are not entitled to file a motion to reopen or reconsider your case.

Robert P. Wiemann, Director
Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The application for temporary resident status as a special agricultural worker was denied by the Director, Western Service Center. It is now before the Administrative Appeals Office on appeal. The appeal will be dismissed.

The director denied the application for lack of prosecution because the applicant failed to appear for fingerprinting at a USCIS Application Support Center or USCIS approved Designated Law Enforcement Agency.

On appeal, the applicant stated that he wanted to remain in the United States and that he had never violated any laws.

In order to be eligible for temporary resident status as a special agricultural worker, an alien must have engaged in qualifying agricultural employment for at least 90 man-days during the twelve-month period ending May 1, 1986, and must be otherwise admissible under section 210(c) of the Act and not ineligible under 8 C.F.R. § 210.3(d).

Pursuant to 8 C.F.R. § 210.2(c)(2)(iv), each alien who filed his application in the United States, regardless of age, must appear at the appropriate Service office and must be fingerprinted.

The applicant was requested to appear for fingerprinting during the 87 day period beginning April 26, 2000. However, he failed to appear. Accordingly, the director denied the application on September 25, 2004 as the applicant had failed to present himself for fingerprinting.

The applicant was provided with the opportunity to appear for fingerprinting. He has failed to comply with Service requirements. Therefore, the applicant is ineligible for temporary resident status as a special agricultural worker.

ORDER: The appeal is dismissed. This decision constitutes a final notice of ineligibility.
