Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The application for temporary resident status as a special agricultural worker was denied by the Director, Western Service Center, and is now before the Administrative Appeals Office (AAO) on appeal. The appeal will be rejected.

The director denied the application because the applicant was inadmissible under Section 212(a)(17) of the Act for being deported and returning to the United States within five years without the permission of the Attorney General.

Whenever an application for special agricultural worker status is denied or the status of a lawful temporary resident is terminated, the alien shall be given written notice setting forth the specific reasons for the denial on Form I-692, Notice of Denial. Form I-692 shall also contain advice to the applicant that he or she may appeal the decision and that such appeal must be taken within 30 days following the service of the notification of decision. 8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a)(3)(i). An appeal received after the thirty (30) day period has tolled will not be accepted for processing. 8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a)(3)(iv). Form I-694, Notice of Appeal, shall be used to file the appeal and must be accompanied by the appropriate fee. 8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a)(3)(ii). Whenever a person has the right to or is required to do some act within the prescribed period after the service of a notice upon him and the notice is served by mail, three days shall be added to the prescribed period. Service by mail is complete upon mailing. 8 C.F.R. § 103.5a(b).

The director issued the Notice of Denial on May 15, 1992, and sent it to the applicant's address of record via certified mail. The notice was returned to the Immigration and Naturalization Service (INS), now Citizenship and Immigration Services (CIS) marked forwarding order expired. Thus, the applicant's failure to receive the notice was due to his failure to inform CIS of his new address. The appeal was not received until November 19, 1992. The appeal was untimely filed and, therefore, must be rejected.

ORDER: The appeal is rejected.
