DISCUSSION: The termination of the applicant's temporary resident status by the Director, California Service Center is before the Administrative Appeals Office on appeal. The appeal will be rejected.

The director terminated the applicant's temporary resident status because the applicant failed to file the application for adjustment of status from temporary to permanent residence within the 43-month application period.

An adverse decision regarding temporary resident status may be appealed to the Administrative Appeals Office. Any appeal with the required fee shall be filed with the Service Center within thirty (30) days after service of the notice of termination. An appeal received after the thirty-day period has tolled will not be accepted. See 8 C.F.R. § 245a.2(p). Whenever a person has the right or is required to do some act within a prescribed period after the service of upon him and the notice is served by mail, three days shall be added to the prescribed period. Service by mail is complete upon mailing. 8 C.F.R. § 103.5a(b).

The director issued the notice of termination on October 8, 2003 and mailed it to the applicant's address of record. The appeal was first received on November 6, 2003, but without the required fee in the correct form of payment. The director mailed the appeal back to the applicant on November 7, 2003 and reiterated the filing instructions that appeared on the appeal form. The appeal was resubmitted with the correct form of payment on November 17, 2003, seven days after the end of the 33-day appeal period. Therefore, the appeal was untimely filed, and must be rejected.

ORDER: The appeal is rejected.
