IN RE:

Applicant:

APPLICATION:

Application for Adjustment from Temporary to Permanent Resident Status under Section 245A of the Immigration and Nationality Act, as amended, 8 U.S.C.
§ 1255a

ON BEHALF OF APPLICANT:

Self-represented

INSTRUCTIONS:

This is the decision of the Administrative Appeals Office in your case. All documents have been returned to the office that originally decided your case. If your appeal was sustained, or if your case was remanded for further action, you will be contacted. If your appeal was dismissed, you no longer have a case pending before this office, and you are not entitled to file a motion to reopen or reconsider your case.

Robert P. Wiemann, Director
Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The application for adjustment from temporary to permanent resident status was denied by the Director, Western Service Center, and is now before the Administrative Appeals Office on appeal. The appeal will be dismissed.

The director denied the application because the applicant had been convicted of four misdemeanors, and was therefore statutorily ineligible for permanent residence

On appeal, dated January 22, 1993, the applicant stated that erroneous records resulted in the denial of his application. He failed to specify what errors existed in the criminal records used by the director. The applicant requested an extension of 90 days in which to acquire "correct" records. However, he never furnished any records at all.

An alien who has been convicted of three or more misdemeanors committed in the United States is ineligible for adjustment from temporary to permanent resident status. 8 C.F.R. § 245a.3(c)(1).

As stated in 8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a)(3)(iv), any appeal which is filed that fails to state the reason for appeal, or is patently frivolous, will be summarily dismissed.

A review of the decision reveals the director accurately set forth a legitimate basis for denial of the application. On appeal, the applicant has not presented additional evidence in support of the claim. Nor has the applicant specifically addressed the grounds stated for the denial. The appeal must therefore be summarily dismissed.

ORDER: The appeal is dismissed. This decision constitutes a final notice of ineligibility.
