Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The application for temporary resident status (legalization) was denied by the Director, California Service Center, and is now before the Administrative Appeals Office (AAO) on appeal. The appeal will be dismissed.

The applicant was deported on May 16, 1986. The director noted the applicant was outside of the United States under an order of deportation after January 1, 1982, and therefore did not reside continuously in the United States since such date.

On appeal, the applicant contends that the denial is a violation of due process and equal protection rights. However, she fails to specify how the denial constitutes such a violation.

An applicant for temporary residence must establish entry into the United States before January 1, 1982, and continuous residence in the United States in an unlawful status since such date and through the date the application is filed. Section 245A(a)(2) of the Act, 8 U.S.C. 1255a(a)(2). An alien shall not be considered to have resided continuously in the United States, if, during any period for which continuous residence is required, the alien was outside of the United States under an order of deportation. Section 245A(g)(2)(B)(i) of the Act, 8 U.S.C. 1255(g)(2)(b)(i).

Because of the deportation, which is established by an executed Warrant of Deportation, the applicant did not reside continuously in the United States as required. Congress provided no relief in the legalization program for failure to maintain continuous residence due to a departure under an order of deportation. Relief is provided in the Act for absences based on factors other than deportation, namely absences due to emergencies and absences approved under the advance parole provisions. Clearly, with respect to maintenance of continuous residence, it was not congressional intent to provide relief for absences under an order of deportation.

General grounds of inadmissibility are set forth in section 212(a) of the Act, and relate to any alien seeking a visa or admission into the United States, or adjustment of status. The applicant is inadmissible under section 212(a)(9)(A)(ii)(II) of the Act, 8 U.S.C. § 1182(a)(9)(A)(ii)(II), for having been deported and having returned to the United States without authorization. An alien's inadmissibility under section 212(a) of the Act, which may be waived, is an entirely separate issue from the continuous residence issue discussed above.

In summary, the applicant was out of the United States after January 1, 1982 under an order of deportation, and cannot be granted temporary residence for two reasons. First and foremost, she failed to maintain continuous residence, and there is no waiver available. Therefore, she is ineligible for temporary residence. Secondly, she is inadmissible under section 212(a)(9)(A)(ii)(II) of the Act as an alien who was deported and returned without permission.

ORDER: The appeal is dismissed.
