IN RE:

Applicant:

APPLICATION:

Application for Status as a Temporary Resident pursuant to Section 245A of the Immigration and Nationality Act, as amended, 8 U.S.C. § 1255a

ON BEHALF OF APPLICANT:

Self-represented

INSTRUCTIONS:

This is the decision of the Administrative Appeals Office in your case. All documents have been returned to the office that originally decided your case. If your appeal was sustained, or if your case was remanded for further action, you will be contacted. If your appeal was dismissed, you no longer have a case pending before this office, and you are not entitled to file a motion to reopen or reconsider your case.

Robert P. Wiemann, Director
Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The termination of the applicant's temporary resident status by the Director, California Service Center is before the Administrative Appeals Office on appeal. The appeal will be dismissed.

The director terminated the applicant's temporary resident status because the applicant failed to file the application for adjustment of status from temporary to permanent residence within the 43-month application period.

On appeal, the applicant explains that he did not file timely because of some personal and economic issues.

The status of an alien lawfully admitted for temporary residence under section 245A(a)(1) of the Act may be terminated at any time if the alien fails to file for adjustment of status from temporary to permanent resident on Form I-698 within forty-three months of the date he/she was granted status as a temporary resident under § 245a.1 of this part. 8 C.F.R. § 245a.2(u)(1)(iv).

The applicant was granted temporary resident status on April 5, 1989. The 43-month eligibility period for filing for adjustment expired on November 5, 1992. The applicant did not file an Application for Adjustment of Status from Temporary to Permanent Resident (Form I-698). The director therefore terminated the applicant's temporary resident status.

The applicant states that he did not file the application due to personal issues stemming from a separation from his wife, and subsequent divorce. His statements made on appeal have been considered. However, there is no waiver available, even for humanitarian reasons, of the requirements stated above.

The burden to file the adjustment application in a timely manner remains with the applicant. See 8 C.F.R. § 245a.3(d). As the applicant has not overcome the basis for termination of status, the appeal must be dismissed.

ORDER: The appeal is dismissed. This decision constitutes a final notice of ineligibility.
