Robert P. Wiemann, Director
Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The termination of temporary resident status by the Director, Western Service Center is now before the Administrative Appeals Office on appeal. The appeal will be dismissed.

The director terminated the applicant's status because the applicant failed to provide criminal dispositions.

On appeal, the applicant provided no evidence, and indicated that she no longer had the notice of intent to terminate, which provided the specific basis for termination. The director subsequently denied the applicant's application for permanent residence on the same basis, failure to provide criminal dispositions. More than twelve years later, the applicant has not provided the criminal dispositions or even addressed the issue.

As stated in 8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a)(3)(iv), any appeal which is filed that fails to state the reason for appeal, or is patently frivolous, will be summarily dismissed.

A review of the decision reveals the director accurately set forth a legitimate basis for termination of the applicant's status. On appeal, the applicant has not presented additional evidence. Nor has she addressed the basis for termination. The appeal must therefore be summarily dismissed.

ORDER: The appeal is dismissed. This decision constitutes a final notice of ineligibility.
