Robert P. Wiemann, Director
Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The application for adjustment from temporary to permanent resident status was denied by the Director, Western Service Center, and is now before the Administrative Appeals Office on appeal. The appeal will be rejected.

The director denied the application because the applicant's temporary resident status had been terminated, and he was therefore ineligible for adjustment from temporary to permanent resident status.

An adverse decision on an application for adjustment to permanent resident status may be appealed to the Administrative Appeals Office. Any appeal shall be submitted to the Service Center with the required fee within thirty (30) days after service of the notice of denial. An appeal received after the thirty-day period has tolled will not be accepted. The thirty-day period for submitting an appeal begins three days after the notice of denial is mailed. 8 C.F.R. § 245a.3(j).

The director issued the notice of decision on May 20, 1992 and mailed it to the applicant's address of record. A postal receipt demonstrates the applicant signed for the delivery on May 29, 1992. The appeal was first received on July 28, 2004, and was later received with the correct fee on August 5, 2004. Therefore, the appeal was untimely filed, and must be rejected.

ORDER: The appeal is rejected.
