Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The termination of the applicant's temporary resident status by the Director, California Service Center, is before the Administrative Appeals Office on appeal. The appeal will be dismissed.

The director terminated the applicant's temporary resident status because the applicant failed to file an application for adjustment of status from temporary to permanent residence within the 43-month application period.

On appeal, the applicant asks for forgiveness for his tardiness, and points out that he has lived in the United States for a long time. He indicates that he would like to become an American citizen.

The status of an alien lawfully admitted for temporary residence under section 245A(a)(1) of the Act may be terminated at any time if the alien fails to file for adjustment of status from temporary to permanent resident on Form I-698 within forty-three months of the date he/she was granted status as a temporary resident under § 245a.1 of this part. 8 C.F.R. § 245a.2(u)(1)(iv).

The applicant was granted temporary resident status on March 31, 1989. The 43-month eligibility period for filing for adjustment expired on October 31, 1992. The applicant filed his Application for Adjustment of Status from Temporary to Permanent Resident (Form I-698) on August 5, 2003. The director, therefore, denied the application and terminated the applicant's temporary resident status.

The Immigration and Naturalization Service and private voluntary organizations widely publicized the requirement of applying for adjustment to permanent residence within the requisite period. Furthermore, the original eligibility period of 31 months was extended to 43 months to better enable applicants to file timely applications. The burden to file the adjustment application in a timely manner remains with the applicant. See 8 C.F.R. § 245a.3(d).

The applicant's statements made on appeal have been considered. Nevertheless, there is no waiver available, even for humanitarian reasons, of the requirements stated above. As the applicant has not overcome the grounds for termination of status, the appeal must be dismissed.

ORDER: The appeal is dismissed. This decision constitutes a final notice of ineligibility.
