Robert P. Wiemann, Chief
Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The Director, Nebraska Service Center denied the application for adjustment to permanent resident status in the legalization program because it was untimely filed. The matter is now before the Administrative Appeals Office. The appeal will be rejected.

Pursuant to section 245A(f)(2) of the Immigration and Nationality Act, as amended, 8 U.S.C. § 1255a(f), no denial of adjustment of status under this section based on a late filing of an application for such adjustment may be reviewed by a court of the United States or of any State or reviewed in any administrative proceeding of the United States Government.

The Administrative Appeals Office is without authority to review the denial of the application. The appeal must be rejected, in spite of the fact that the director stated a fee was required.¹

ORDER: The appeal is rejected.

¹ On November 3, 2005, the director rejected the appeal for lack of the required fee. On November 16, 2005, the director rejected the appeal again for an incorrect fee.
