Office: NEBRASKA SERVICE CENTER

Date: SEP 05 2006

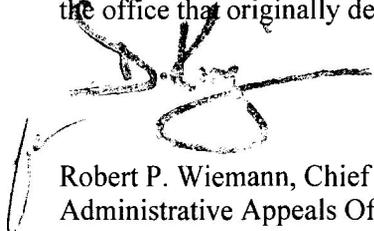

IN RE: Applicant: [REDACTED]

APPLICATION: Application for Status as a Temporary Resident pursuant to Section 210 of the Immigration and Nationality Act, as amended, 8 U.S.C. § 1160.

ON BEHALF OF APPLICANT: Self-represented

INSTRUCTIONS:

This is the decision of the Administrative Appeals Office in your case. All documents have been returned to the office that originally decided your case. Any further inquiry must be made to that office.

Robert P. Wiemann, Chief
Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The applicant's temporary resident status was terminated by the Director, Northern Regional Processing Facility. The matter was remanded by the Administrative Appeals Office (AAO), and denied again by the Director, Nebraska Service Center. The matter is now before the AAO on appeal. The case will be remanded once again for further consideration and action.

As of March 29, 1998, applicants for Temporary Resident Status as a Special Agricultural Worker are required to be fingerprinted at a Citizenship and Immigration Services (CIS) Application Support Center or approved Designated Law Enforcement Agency.

On January 19, 1994, the case was remanded for the introduction of any additional adverse evidence. A notice dated October 24, 2005 was sent to the applicant at his address of record, advising him to appear at the CIS office in Chicago, Illinois on May 24, 2005, to be fingerprinted. As the notice was issued subsequent to the his appointment, the applicant could not have appeared at the Chicago office on May 24, 2005. Therefore, the director's denial of the application will be withdrawn.

The case is remanded for the purpose of sending the applicant another fingerprint notification form, and affording him the opportunity to comply with its requirements. Thereafter, the director will render a new decision. Should the decision be adverse, the director must give written notice setting forth the specific reasons for the denial pursuant to 8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a)(1)(i), and the applicant shall be permitted to file an appeal without a fee. Additionally, the director may certify the decision to this office.

ORDER: The case is remanded for appropriate action and decision consistent with the foregoing.
