Robert P. Wiemann, Chief
Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The application for temporary resident status as a special agricultural worker was denied by the Director, Western Service Center, and is now before the Administrative Appeals Office on appeal. The appeal will be dismissed.¹

The director denied the application because the applicant failed to establish the performance of at least 90 man-days of qualifying agricultural employment during the eligibility period ending May 1, 1986. This determination was based on adverse information regarding the applicant's claim of employment for Audon Roy Perez.

On appeal, the applicant requested a copy of his legalization file. The Immigration and Naturalization Service (INS), now Citizenship and Immigration Services (CIS), complied with the request on June 27, 1991. The applicant states that a full statement regarding the reason(s) for his appeal will be forthcoming after he reviews his file. To date, more than fifteen years later, the applicant has made no statements regarding the reason(s) for his appeal, nor has he submitted any additional documentary evidence.

In order to be eligible for temporary resident status as a special agricultural worker, an alien must have engaged in qualifying agricultural employment for at least 90 man-days during the twelve-month period ending May 1, 1986, and must be otherwise admissible under section 210(c) of the Act and not ineligible under 8 C.F.R. § 210.3(d). 8 C.F.R. § 210.3(a). An applicant has the burden of proving the above by a preponderance of the evidence. 8 C.F.R. § 210.3(b).

As stated in 8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a)(3)(iv), any appeal which is filed that fails to state the reason for appeal, or is patently frivolous, will be summarily dismissed. The applicant has failed to address the reasons stated for denial and has not provided any additional evidence on appeal. The appeal must therefore be summarily dismissed.

ORDER: The appeal is dismissed. This decision constitutes a final notice of ineligibility.

¹ 8 C.F.R. § 103.2(a)(3) specifies that an applicant may be represented "by an attorney in the United States, as defined in § 292.1(a)(6) of this chapter, or by an accredited representative as defined in § 292.1(a)(4) of this chapter." The term attorney means any person who is a member in good standing of the bar of the highest court of any state and is not under any order of any court suspending, enjoining, restraining, disbaring, or otherwise restricting him in the practice of law. 8 C.F.R. § 1.1(f). In this case, the person listed on the G-28 is no longer an active member of the Louisiana State bar. Therefore, the AAO may not recognize counsel in this proceeding.
