Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The termination of the applicant's temporary resident status by the Director, Texas Service Center, is before the Administrative Appeals Office (AAO) on appeal. The appeal will be dismissed.

The director terminated the applicant's temporary resident status because the applicant failed to file the application for adjustment of status from temporary to permanent residence within the 43-month application period.

On appeal, the applicant states that she has not left the country since she was granted temporary resident status on October 16, 1989.

The status of an alien lawfully admitted for temporary residence under section 245A(a)(1) of the Act may be terminated at any time if the alien fails to file for adjustment of status from temporary to permanent resident on Form I-698 within forty-three months of the date he/she was granted status as a temporary resident under § 245a.1 of this part. 8 C.F.R. § 245a.2(u)(1)(iv).

The applicant was granted temporary resident status on October 16, 1989. The 43-month eligibility period for filing for adjustment expired on May 16, 1993. The applicant's Form I-698 was not received by the Immigration and Naturalization Service, now Citizenship and Immigration Services (CIS), until April 2, 1996. The director therefore denied the application and terminated the applicant's temporary resident status.

The applicant's statement on appeal has been considered. Nevertheless, there is no waiver, even for humanitarian reasons, for failure to file the Form I-698 within the 43-month application period. As the applicant has not overcome the basis for termination of status, the appeal must be dismissed.

The applicant is ineligible for temporary residence for the above stated reasons, with each considered as an independent and alternative basis for denial.

ORDER: The appeal is dismissed. This decision constitutes a final notice of ineligibility.
