Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The application for temporary resident status was denied by the Director, Kansas City Field Office, and is now before the Administrative Appeals Office (AAO) on appeal. The appeal will be dismissed.

The director denied the application because she found the applicant had provided insufficient proof of her residency in the United States during the requisite period.

On appeal, the applicant requested that the director reconsider her application for temporary resident status, particularly for the sake of the applicant's children.

As stated in 8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a)(3)(iv), any appeal which is filed that fails to state the reason for appeal, or is patently frivolous, will be summarily dismissed.

A review of the decision reveals the director accurately set forth a legitimate basis for denial of the application. On appeal, the applicant has not presented additional evidence. Nor has she addressed the grounds stated for denial. The appeal must therefore be summarily dismissed.

ORDER: The appeal is dismissed. This decision constitutes a final notice of ineligibility.
