If your appeal was dismissed, you no longer have a case pending before this office, and you are not entitled to file a motion to reopen or reconsider your case.

Robert P. Wiemann, Chief
Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: This matter is an application for adjustment from temporary to permanent resident status denied by the Field Office Director, Los Angeles, California. The matter is before the Administrative Appeals Office (AAO) on appeal. The appeal will be dismissed.

The director denied the application because he determined that the applicant failed to respond to the Form I-72, Request for Evidence, instructing the applicant to provide additional documentation to establish that he is admissible to the United States.

On appeal, the applicant provides a statement in Spanish. The statement is not accompanied by a certified English translation as required by 8 C.F.R. § 103.2(b)(3).

As stated in 8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a)(3)(iv), any appeal which is filed that fails to state the reason for appeal, or is patently frivolous, will be summarily dismissed.

A review of the decision reveals the director accurately set forth a legitimate basis for denial of the application. On appeal, the applicant has not presented additional evidence. Nor has he addressed the grounds stated for denial. The appeal must therefore be summarily dismissed.

ORDER: The appeal is dismissed. This decision constitutes a final notice of ineligibility for adjustment from temporary to permanent resident status.
