IN RE: Applicant: [REDACTED]

APPLICATION: Application for Status as a Temporary Resident pursuant to Section 245A of the Immigration and Nationality Act, as amended, 8 U.S.C. § 1255a

ON BEHALF OF APPLICANT:

SELF-REPRESENTED

INSTRUCTIONS:

This is the decision of the Administrative Appeals Office in your case. All documents have been returned to the office that originally decided your case. If your appeal was sustained, or if your case was remanded for further action, you will be contacted. If your appeal was dismissed, you no longer have a case pending before this office, and you are not entitled to file a motion to reopen or reconsider your case.

Robert P. Wiemann, Chief
Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The termination of temporary resident status by the Director, Nebraska Service Center is now before the Administrative Appeals Office on appeal. The appeal will be dismissed.

The director terminated the applicant's temporary resident status because the applicant failed to apply for adjustment to permanent resident status within the required period.

On the Form I-694, Notice of Appeal, the applicant states no reasons for the appeal. The applicant attached a two-paragraph letter in which he states that he has lived and worked in the United States for over 13 years and that he would lose everything if his papers were denied. The applicant also submitted a two-paragraph letter from his wife, who states that she and their son are dependent on the applicant.

The regulation at 8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a)(3)(iv) prescribes that any appeal that fails to state the reason for appeal, is filed solely on the basis of a denial for failure to file the application for adjustment of status under section 245A in a timely manner, or is patently frivolous, will be summarily dismissed.

In his decision, the director properly set forth a valid basis for termination of the applicant's status. On appeal, the applicant does not address the reason why the director terminated his temporary resident status and provides no additional, relevant evidence. The appeal must therefore be summarily dismissed.

ORDER: The appeal is dismissed. This decision constitutes a final notice of ineligibility.
