Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The termination of temporary resident status by the Director, California Service Center is now before the Administrative Appeals Office on appeal. The appeal will be dismissed.

The director terminated the applicant's temporary resident status because the applicant failed to apply for adjustment to permanent resident status within the required period.

On the Form I-694, Notice of Appeal, which the applicant dated February 9, 2005, the applicant stated no reasons for the appeal. The applicant indicated that he would submit a brief within 30 days. To date, nearly a year later, the AAO has received nothing further from the applicant.

The regulation at 8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a)(3)(iv) prescribes that any appeal that fails to state the reason for appeal, is filed solely on the basis of a denial for failure to file the application for adjustment of status under section 245A in a timely manner, or is patently frivolous, will be summarily dismissed.

In his decision, the director properly set forth a valid basis for termination of the applicant's status. On appeal, the applicant does not address the reason why the director terminated his temporary resident status and provides no additional evidence. The appeal must therefore be summarily dismissed.

ORDER: The appeal is dismissed. This decision constitutes a final notice of ineligibility.
