IN RE: Applicant: [REDACTED]

APPLICATION: Application for Status as a Temporary Resident pursuant to Section 245A of the Immigration and Nationality Act, as amended, 8 U.S.C. § 1255a

ON BEHALF OF APPLICANT:

INSTRUCTIONS:

This is the decision of the Administrative Appeals Office in your case. All documents have been returned to the office that originally decided your case. If your appeal was sustained, or if your case was remanded for further action, you will be contacted. If your appeal was dismissed, you no longer have a case pending before this office, and you are not entitled to file a motion to reopen or reconsider your case.

Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The termination of the applicant's temporary resident status by the District Director, Houston, Texas, is before the Administrative Appeals Office on appeal. The appeal will be summarily dismissed.

The director terminated the applicant's temporary resident status because the applicant had been convicted of three misdemeanor offenses committed in the United States.

On appeal, counsel for the applicant indicated that she would file a brief and/or additional documentation within 30 days of the filing date of the appeal. To date, Citizenship and Immigration Services (CIS) has not received a brief or any additional evidence to overcome the basis for termination of the applicant's temporary resident status.

As stated in 8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a)(3)(iv), any appeal which is filed that fails to state the reason for appeal, or is patently frivolous, will be summarily dismissed.

A review of the decision reveals the director accurately set forth a legitimate basis for denial of the application. On appeal, counsel has not presented any additional evidence. Nor has she addressed the grounds stated for denial. The appeal must therefore be summarily dismissed.

ORDER: The appeal is dismissed. This decision constitutes a final notice of ineligibility.
