IN RE:

Applicant:

APPLICATION: Application for Status as a Temporary Resident pursuant to Section 245A of the Immigration and Nationality Act, as amended, 8 U.S.C. § 1255a

ON BEHALF OF APPLICANT:

SELF-REPRESENTED

INSTRUCTIONS:

This is the decision of the Administrative Appeals Office in your case. All documents have been returned to the office that originally decided your case. If your appeal was sustained, or if your case was remanded for further action, you will be contacted. If your appeal was dismissed, you no longer have a case pending before this office, and you are not entitled to file a motion to reopen or reconsider your case.

Robert P. Wiemann, Chief
Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The Director, Texas Service Center, terminated the applicant's temporary resident status. The applicant appealed and the Administrative Appeals Office (AAO) remanded the case for further action. The director reaffirmed the termination and the matter is now before the AAO on appeal. The appeal will be dismissed.

The director terminated the applicant's temporary resident status because the applicant failed to apply for adjustment to permanent resident status within the required period.

On appeal, the applicant states that she did not timely receive the Notice of Termination and requests reconsideration of the termination of her temporary resident status.

Section 245A(b)(2) of the Act states, in pertinent part:

Termination of temporary residence. – The [Secretary of Homeland Security] shall provide for termination of temporary resident status granted an alien under subsection (a) –

* * *

(C) at the end of the 43rd month beginning after the date the alien is granted such status, unless the alien has filed an application for adjustment of such status pursuant to paragraph (1) and such application has not been denied.

The corresponding regulation at 8 C.F.R. § 245a.2(u)(1)(iv) further prescribes that the status of an alien lawfully admitted for temporary residence under section 245A(a)(1) of the Act may be terminated at any time if “[t]he alien fails to file for adjustment of status from temporary resident to permanent resident on Form I-698 within forty-three (43) months of the date he/she was granted status as a temporary resident[.]” The applicant bears the burden to timely file the application for adjustment from temporary to permanent resident status within the prescribed 43-month period. See 8 C.F.R. § 245a.3(b)(1). The statute and regulations do not allow a waiver of untimely filing.

The record in this case shows that the applicant was granted temporary resident status under section 245A(a)(1) of the Act on August 26, 1988. The applicant did not file a Form I-698, Application to Adjust Status from Temporary to Permanent Resident, until November 13, 1997, over five years after her prescribed 43-month filing period had expired. On appeal, the applicant does not claim or submit evidence that she filed a Form I-698 within the prescribed period.

The applicant failed to file an application for adjustment of status by the end of the 43rd month after she was granted temporary resident status. Accordingly, her status was properly terminated pursuant to section 245A(b)(2) of the Act and the corresponding regulation at 8 C.F.R. § 245a.2(u)(1)(iv). In his March 26, 2001 decision, the director properly set forth this valid basis for termination of the applicant's status. The applicant's statements on appeal fail to overcome the basis for the termination. Accordingly, the appeal will be dismissed.

ORDER: The appeal is dismissed. This decision constitutes a final notice of ineligibility.
