Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The applicant's temporary resident status was terminated by the Director, California Service Center, and the matter is now before the Administrative Appeals Office on appeal. The appeal will be dismissed.

The director terminated the applicant's temporary resident status because the applicant failed to file the application for adjustment of status from temporary to permanent residence within the 43-month application period.

On appeal, the applicant acknowledges that he failed to file his adjustment application within the 43-month application period and indicates that he will submit a brief within 30 days. To date, no brief or evidence has been received. Therefore, the application will be considered complete.

As stated in 8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a)(3)(iv), any appeal which is filed that fails to state the reason for appeal, or is patently frivolous, will be summarily dismissed.

A review of the decision reveals the director accurately set forth a legitimate basis for the termination of the applicant's temporary resident status. On appeal, the applicant has not presented additional evidence. Nor has he addressed the grounds stated for termination. The appeal must therefore be summarily dismissed.

ORDER: The appeal is dismissed. This decision constitutes a final notice of ineligibility.
