Robert P. Wiemann, Chief
Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The application for temporary resident status was denied by the Director, Western Service Center, and is now before the Administrative Appeals Office on appeal. The appeal will be dismissed.

The director terminated the applicant's temporary resident status because he determined that the applicant had been convicted of three misdemeanor offenses.

The director subsequently wrote to the applicant on October 21, 2004, and directed him to file a duplicate appeal form, as the original was lost. However, the notice was returned as undeliverable. Over three years later, the applicant has not contacted the director.

As stated in 8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a)(3)(iv), any appeal which is filed that fails to state the reason for appeal, or is patently frivolous, will be summarily dismissed.

A review of the decision reveals the director accurately set forth a legitimate basis for termination of the applicant's temporary resident status. The applicant has not challenged the basis for termination. The appeal must therefore be summarily dismissed.

ORDER: The appeal is dismissed. This decision constitutes a final notice of ineligibility.
