This is the decision of the Administrative Appeals Office in your case. All documents have been returned to the office that originally decided your case. Robert P. Wiemann, Chief
Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The application for temporary resident status as a special agricultural worker was denied by the Director, Western Service Center. The Legalization Appeals Unit remanded the case for further action. The Director, California Service Center, issued a new notice of intent to deny and a motion to reopen. It is now before the Administrative Appeals Office on appeal. The appeal will be dismissed.

Although the application for temporary residence under section 210(a)(1) of the Immigration and Nationality Act was denied, the applicant was adjusted to lawful permanent resident status in another proceeding on February 16, 2006. Therefore, the application for temporary resident status as a special agricultural worker is moot.

ORDER: The appeal is dismissed based on the alien's lawful permanent resident status.
