IN RE: Applicant: [REDACTED]

ON BEHALF OF APPLICANT:

SELF-REPRESENTED

INSTRUCTIONS:

This is the decision of the Administrative Appeals Office in your case. All documents have been returned to the office that originally decided your case. If your appeal was sustained, or if your case was remanded for further action, you will be contacted. If your appeal was dismissed, you no longer have a case pending before this office, and you are not entitled to file a motion to reopen or reconsider your case.

Robert P. Wiemann, Chief
Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The application for adjustment from temporary to permanent resident status was denied by the Director, Nebraska Service Center, and is now before the Administrative Appeals Office on appeal. The appeal will be dismissed.

The director denied the application because the applicant had never been granted temporary resident status.

To be eligible to adjust status to lawful permanent residency under section 245A(b) of the Act, an alien must have been granted lawful temporary resident status under section 245A(a) of the Act. Section 245A(b) of the Act, 8 U.S.C. § 1255a(b); 8 C.F.R. § 245a.3(b).

On the Form I-694, Notice of Appeal, the applicant states no reason for the appeal and attaches no additional statement or evidence.

Pursuant to the regulation at 8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a)(3)(iv), any appeal that fails to state the reason for appeal, or is patently frivolous, will be summarily dismissed.

In his decision, the director properly set forth a valid basis for the denial of the application. On appeal, the applicant states no reason for the appeal and submits no further evidence. Consequently, the appeal must be summarily dismissed.

ORDER: The appeal is dismissed. This decision constitutes a final notice of ineligibility.
