IN RE:

Applicant:

APPLICATION:

Application for Status as a Temporary Resident pursuant to Section 245A of the Immigration and Nationality Act, as amended, 8 U.S.C. § 1255a

ON BEHALF OF APPLICANT:

SELF-REPRESENTED

INSTRUCTIONS:

This is the decision of the Administrative Appeals Office in your case. All documents have been returned to the office that originally decided your case. If your appeal was sustained, or if your case was remanded for further action, you will be contacted. If your appeal was dismissed, you no longer have a case pending before this office, and you are not entitled to file a motion to reopen or reconsider your case.

Robert P. Wiemann, Chief
Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The termination of temporary resident status by the Director, California Service Center is now before the Administrative Appeals Office on appeal. The appeal will be dismissed.

The director terminated the applicant's temporary resident status because the applicant failed to apply for adjustment to permanent resident status within the required period.

On the Form I-694, Notice of Appeal, the applicant indicates that she has waived the right to submit a written brief or statement.

The regulation at 8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a)(3)(iv) prescribes that any appeal that fails to state the reason for appeal or is patently frivolous, will be summarily dismissed.

In his decision, the director properly set forth a valid basis for the termination of the applicant's status. On appeal, the applicant does not state a reason for the appeal, does not address the basis for the termination of her status and submits no additional evidence. The appeal must therefore be summarily dismissed.

ORDER: The appeal is dismissed. This decision constitutes a final notice of ineligibility.
