Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The application for temporary resident status pursuant to the terms of the settlement agreements reached in Catholic Social Services, Inc., et al., v. Ridge, et al., CIV. NO. S-86-1343-LKK (E.D. Cal) January 23, 2004, and Felicity Mary Newman, et al., v. United States Immigration and Citizenship Services, et al., CIV. NO. 87-4757-WDK (C.D. Cal) February 17, 2004, (CSS/Newman Settlement Agreements) was denied by the District Director, Newark, New Jersey, and is now before the Administrative Appeals Office (AAO) on appeal. The appeal will be rejected.

The district director concluded the applicant had abandoned his application for temporary residence by failing to respond to a request for additional supporting documentation within the requisite time and, therefore, denied the application for a lack of prosecution.

On appeal, the applicant indicates that his appeal was submitted late because his roommate did not immediately provide him with the notice of denial.

If all requested initial evidence and requested additional evidence is not submitted by the required date, the application or petition shall be considered abandoned, and accordingly shall be denied. 8 C.F.R. § 103.2(b)(13).

The record reflects that the applicant submitted a Form I-687, Application for Status as a Temporary Resident under Section 245A of the Immigration and Nationality Act, to Citizenship and Immigration Services, or CIS (formerly the Immigration and Naturalization Service, or the Service) on August 3, 2005. The record shows that the district director issued a Form I-72, Request for Additional Evidence, to the applicant on December 20, 2005, which informed the applicant that he needed to submit additional evidence in support of his Form I-687 application. The applicant was granted ninety days to submit the requested documentation. The record further shows that the applicant failed to submit the requested evidence.

The director determined the application had been abandoned and, therefore, denied the application for a lack of prosecution pursuant to 8 C.F.R. § 103.2(b)(13).

A denial due to abandonment may not be appealed, but an applicant may file a motion to reopen or reconsider under 8 C.F.R. § 103.5. 8 C.F.R. § 103.2(b)(15). As a denial due to abandonment cannot be appealed under 8 C.F.R. § 103.2(b)(15), the appeal must be rejected.

ORDER: The appeal is rejected.
