Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The application for temporary resident status was denied by the District Director, El Paso, Texas, and is now before the Administrative Appeals Office on appeal. The appeal will be dismissed.

The director noted that the applicant, who was born on January 2, 1983, stated on the Form I-687, Application for Status as a Temporary Resident, that he first entered the United States in 1983 when he was born. The district director, therefore, denied the application because the applicant could not establish continuous residence in the United States from prior to January 1, 1982 through May 4, 1988.

On appeal, the applicant contended that he had submitted sufficient evidence to establish his eligibility for temporary resident status. The applicant requested a copy of the record of proceedings and indicated that he would submit additional evidence after receipt of a copy of the record. The applicant was mailed a copy of the record of proceedings on April 22, 2006. To date, the applicant has not submitted a brief or any additional evidence to supplement the appeal. Therefore, the record will be considered complete.

As stated in 8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a)(3)(iv), any appeal which is filed that fails to state the reason for appeal, or is patently frivolous, will be summarily dismissed.

A review of the decision reveals the director accurately set forth a legitimate basis for denial of the application. On appeal, the applicant has not presented additional evidence. Nor has he addressed the grounds stated for denial. The appeal must therefore be summarily dismissed.

ORDER: The appeal is dismissed. This decision constitutes a final notice of ineligibility.
