Robert P. Wiemann, Chief
Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The termination of the applicant's temporary resident status by the Director, Texas Service Center is before the Administrative Appeals Office on appeal. The appeal will be rejected.

The director terminated the applicant's temporary resident status because the applicant failed to file the application for adjustment of status from temporary to permanent residence within the 43-month application period.

An adverse decision regarding temporary resident status may be appealed to the Administrative Appeals Office. Any appeal with the required fee shall be filed with the Service Center within thirty (30) days after service of the notice of termination. An appeal received after the thirty-day period has tolled will not be accepted. See 8 C.F.R. § 245a.2(p). Whenever a person has the right or is required to do some act within a prescribed period after the service of notice upon him and the notice is served by mail, three days shall be added to the prescribed period. Service by mail is complete upon mailing. 8 C.F.R. § 103.5a(b).

The director issued the notice of termination on September 20, 2005 and mailed it to the counsel's address of record. The appeal was initially received on October 21, 2005. However, it appears that the applicant failed to comply with the director's instructions (listed at the bottom of the termination notice) to submit the appeal in triplicate. The appeal was resubmitted on October 26, 2005, or 36 days after the notice of termination was issued. Therefore, the appeal was untimely filed, and must be rejected.

ORDER: The appeal is rejected.
