IN RE: Applicant: [REDACTED]

APPLICATION: Application for Status as a Temporary Resident pursuant to Section 210 of the Immigration and Nationality Act, as amended, 8 U.S.C. § 1160

ON BEHALF OF APPLICANT: SELF-REPRESENTED

INSTRUCTIONS:

This is the decision of the Administrative Appeals Office in your case. All documents have been returned to the office that originally decided your case. If your appeal was sustained, or if your case was remanded for further action, you will be contacted. If your appeal was dismissed, you no longer have a case pending before this office, and you are not entitled to file a motion to reopen or reconsider your case.

Robert P. Wiemann, Chief
Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The termination of the applicant's temporary resident status by the District Director, Los Angeles, California, is now before the Administrative Appeals Office on appeal. The appeal will be summarily dismissed.

The director terminated the applicant's temporary resident status as a special agricultural worker because the applicant had been convicted of a state regulation relating to a controlled substance. Specifically, the applicant pled guilty on April 13, 2001, in the Superior Court of California, County of San Bernardino, to possession of a controlled substance in violation of section 11377(a) of the California Health and Safety Code, a misdemeanor.

On appeal, the applicant states that he has been sober for six years. He requests that his temporary resident status be reinstated because he has a family to support.

As stated in 8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a)(3)(iv), any appeal which is filed that fails to state the reason for appeal, or is patently frivolous, will be summarily dismissed.

A review of the decision reveals the director accurately set forth a legitimate basis for denial of the application. On appeal, the applicant has not presented additional evidence. Nor has he addressed the grounds stated for denial. The appeal must therefore be summarily dismissed.

ORDER: The appeal is dismissed. This decision constitutes a final notice of ineligibility.
