IN RE:

Applicant: [Redacted]

APPLICATION:

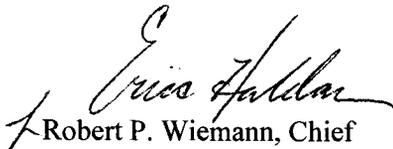

Application for Status as a Temporary Resident pursuant to Section 245A of the Immigration and Nationality Act, as amended, 8 U.S.C. § 1255a

ON BEHALF OF APPLICANT:

SELF-REPRESENTED

INSTRUCTIONS:

This is the decision of the Administrative Appeals Office in your case. The file has been returned to the office that originally decided your case. If your appeal was sustained, or if your case was remanded for further action, you will be contacted. If your appeal was dismissed, you no longer have a case pending before this office, and you are not entitled to file a motion to reopen or reconsider your case.

Robert P. Wiemann, Chief
Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The application for temporary resident status was denied by the Director, Newark District Office, and is now before the Administrative Appeals Office (AAO) on appeal. The appeal will be dismissed.

The director denied the application because she found the documentation submitted failed to prove the applicant's eligibility for temporary resident status. The director mistakenly stated that the applicant provided no credible documentation to prove he was physically present in the United States from prior to January 1, 1982 through May 4, 1988, rather than that the applicant provided no credible documentation to prove he continuously resided in the United States from prior to January 1, 1982 until the time he attempted to file for temporary resident status.

On appeal, the applicant stated that the reason for his appeal was to rectify the unfairness meted out in the director's decision, to seek consideration due to prevailing difficulties, and because the director's decision was apparently deficient and premature. The applicant stated that the evidence in support of his claim was not considered sympathetically, so he resubmitted the evidence so that it could be sympathetically considered. The applicant attached copies of evidence that had already been submitted. The applicant provided no additional evidence or explanation to overcome the reasons for denial of his application.

As stated in 8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a)(3)(iv), any appeal which is filed that fails to state the reason for appeal, or is patently frivolous, will be summarily dismissed.

A review of the decision reveals the director accurately set forth a legitimate basis for denial of the application. On appeal, the applicant has not presented additional evidence. Nor has he addressed the grounds stated for denial. The appeal must therefore be summarily dismissed.

ORDER: The appeal is dismissed. This decision constitutes a final notice of ineligibility.
