

DISCUSSION: The termination of the applicant's temporary resident status by the Director, California Service Center, is now before the Administrative Appeals Office (AAO) on appeal. The appeal will be summarily dismissed.

The director noted that the applicant had been absent from the United States for over 45 days during the period from prior to January 1, 1982 to May 4, 1988, and had failed to establish that an emergent reason had delayed her return. The director therefore concluded that the applicant had erroneously been granted temporary resident status and terminated the applicant's status. The director informed the applicant that her appeal was still in effect and granted her 30 days to submit additional evidence to overcome the basis for the termination of her temporary resident status. To date, almost nine months after the issuance of the Notice of Termination, the applicant has not submitted a statement or any additional evidence.

As stated in 8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a)(3)(iv), any appeal which is filed that fails to state the reason for appeal, or is patently frivolous, will be summarily dismissed.

A review of the decision reveals the director accurately set forth a legitimate basis for termination of the applicant's temporary resident status. On appeal, the applicant has not presented additional evidence. Nor has she addressed the grounds stated for termination of her temporary resident status. The appeal must therefore be summarily dismissed.

ORDER: The appeal is dismissed. This decision constitutes a final notice of ineligibility.
