Robert P. Wiemann, Chief
Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The application for temporary resident status was denied by the Director, Detroit District Office, and is now before the Administrative Appeals Office (AAO) on appeal. The appeal will be dismissed.

The director denied the application because she found the applicant failed to prove by a preponderance of the evidence that he has resided in the United States for the requisite periods, is admissible to the United States under the provisions of Section 245A of the Immigration and Nationality Act, and is otherwise eligible for adjustment of status under this section.

On appeal, the applicant stated that he forgot to submit evidence from 1980 with his application for temporary residence. The applicant attached a photocopy of a visa stamp to enter the United States that was issued in 1989, together with a store receipt dated September 1, 1993. The applicant provided no additional evidence or explanation to overcome the reasons for denial of his application.

As stated in 8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a)(3)(iv), any appeal which is filed that fails to state the reason for appeal, or is patently frivolous, will be summarily dismissed.

A review of the decision reveals the director accurately set forth a legitimate basis for denial of the application. On appeal, the applicant has not presented additional evidence that is relevant to his eligibility for temporary resident status. Nor has he addressed the grounds stated for denial. The appeal must therefore be summarily dismissed.

ORDER: The appeal is dismissed. This decision constitutes a final notice of ineligibility.
