Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The application for Temporary Resident Status was denied by the Director, New Orleans, Louisiana District Office, and that decision is now before the Administrative Appeals Office (AAO) on appeal. The appeal will be dismissed.

The director denied the application because she found the evidence submitted with the application was insufficient to establish eligibility for Temporary Resident Status pursuant to the terms of the CSS/Newman Settlement Agreements. Specifically, the director noted in her decision that at the time of his interview with a Citizenship and Immigration Services (CIS) officer on November 8, 2006, the applicant stated that he entered the United States for the first time in August of 1984. It is noted here that this testimony is consistent with what the applicant showed as his first date of residence on his Form I-687 Application for Status as a Temporary Resident. Therefore, the director found that the applicant was not eligible to adjust to Temporary Resident Status pursuant to Immigration and Nationality Act § 245A(a)(2)(A) which states in pertinent part that applicants for adjustment of status to that of a Temporary Resident must establish that they entered the United States before January 1, 1982.

On appeal, the applicant states that he previously submitted all documentation for consideration. He requests that the Service review his file and reconsider its decision. The applicant provided no additional evidence or explanation to overcome the reasons for denial of his application.

As stated in 8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a)(3)(iv), any appeal which is filed that fails to state the reason for appeal, or is patently frivolous, will be summarily dismissed.

A review of the decision reveals the director accurately set forth a legitimate basis for denial of the application. On appeal, the applicant has not presented additional evidence. Nor has he addressed the grounds stated for denial. The appeal must therefore be summarily dismissed.

ORDER: The appeal is dismissed. This decision constitutes a final notice of ineligibility.
