Robert P. Wiemann, Chief
Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The termination of temporary resident status by the Director, California Service Center, is before the Administrative Appeals Office on appeal. The appeal will be summarily dismissed.

The director terminated the applicant's status because the applicant failed to file the Form I-698, Application for Adjustment of Status from Temporary to Permanent Resident, within the 43-month application period.

On appeal, the applicant does not provide any evidence to overcome the director's findings. The applicant merely requests an extension of six months in order to obtain additional documentation and present evidence that he had submitted a Form I-698. However, more than nine months later, no additional correspondence has been presented by the applicant.

As stated in 8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a)(3)(iv), any appeal which is filed that fails to state the reason for appeal, or is patently frivolous, will be summarily dismissed.

A review of the decision reveals the director accurately set forth a legitimate basis for denial. The applicant has not challenged the basis for denial. The appeal must therefore be summarily dismissed.

ORDER: The appeal is dismissed. This decision constitutes a final notice of ineligibility.
