IN RE: Applicant:

APPLICATION: Application for Temporary Resident Status under Section 245A of the Immigration and Nationality Act, as amended, 8 U.S.C. § 1255a

ON BEHALF OF APPLICANT: SELF-REPRESENTED

INSTRUCTIONS:

This is the decision of the Administrative Appeals Office in your case. All documents have been returned to the office that originally decided your case. If your appeal was sustained, or if your case was remanded for further action, you will be contacted. If your appeal was dismissed, you no longer have a case pending before this office, and you are not entitled to file a motion to reopen or reconsider your case.

Robert P. Viemann, Chief
Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The application for temporary resident status was denied by the Director, Los Angeles District Office, and is now before the Administrative Appeals Office (AAO) on appeal. The appeal will be dismissed.

The director denied the application because she found the applicant's rebuttal failed to overcome the grounds for denial explained in the Notice of Intent to Deny. Specifically, the director found that the documents the applicant submitted do not establish that he entered the United States before January 1, 1982 and resided in continuous unlawful status since that date through May 4, 1988. It is noted that the director mistakenly indicated the applicant must provide evidence that he resided in the United States through May 4, 1988, although the applicant actually must prove he resided in the United States through the time he attempted to file his application for temporary resident status.

On appeal, the applicant stated that he lost most of his receipts as he was so discouraged when he first attempted to apply for temporary resident status. The applicant also stated that he came to the United States in 1981 and has been residing here continuously since then. The applicant also submitted copies of evidence he had already submitted in response to the Notice of Intent to Deny. The applicant provided no additional evidence or explanation to overcome the reasons for denial of his application.

As stated in 8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a)(3)(iv), any appeal which is filed that fails to state the reason for appeal, or is patently frivolous, will be summarily dismissed.

A review of the decision reveals the director accurately set forth a legitimate basis for denial of the application. On appeal, the applicant has not presented additional evidence. Nor has he addressed the grounds stated for denial. The appeal must therefore be summarily dismissed.

ORDER: The appeal is dismissed. This decision constitutes a final notice of ineligibility.
