IN RE:

Applicant:

APPLICATION:

Application for Status as a Temporary Resident pursuant to Section 245A of the Immigration and Nationality Act, as amended, 8 U.S.C. § 1255a

ON BEHALF OF APPLICANT: SELF-REPRESENTED

INSTRUCTIONS:

This is the decision of the Administrative Appeals Office in your case. All documents have been returned to the office that originally decided your case. If your appeal was sustained, or if your case was remanded for further action, you will be contacted. If your appeal was dismissed, you no longer have a case pending before this office, and you are not entitled to file a motion to reopen or reconsider your case.

Robert P. Wiemann, Chief
Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The termination of the applicant's temporary resident status by the Director, Texas Service Center, is before the Administrative Appeals Office (AAO) on appeal. The appeal will be dismissed.

The director terminated the applicant's temporary resident status because the applicant failed to file the application for adjustment of status from temporary to permanent residence within the 43-month application period. Specifically, in the director's notice of intent to terminate, the director stated that the applicant was granted temporary resident status on August 26, 1988 and was required to file an application to adjust her status to that of a permanent resident no later than March 26, 1992.

In reviewing the record, the AAO was unable to locate documentation to verify the date of the applicant's adjustment of status to that of a temporary resident. As such, the AAO remanded the matter so that the record could be supplemented with the necessary information. The necessary information has since been located and incorporated into the record and the matter has been returned to the AAO for final review. It is determined that the date cited by the director, i.e., August 26, 1988, has been verified and confirmed.

On appeal, the applicant states that she plans to submit an appellate brief within 30 days. To date, however, no further evidence or information has been submitted.

As stated in 8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a)(3)(iv), any appeal which is filed that fails to state the reason for appeal, or is patently frivolous, will be summarily dismissed.

A review of the decision reveals the director accurately set forth a legitimate basis for termination of the applicant's temporary resident status. On appeal, the applicant has not presented additional evidence or addressed the grounds stated for the director's adverse decision. The appeal must therefore be summarily dismissed.

ORDER: The appeal is dismissed. This decision constitutes a final notice of ineligibility.
