Robert P. Wiemann, Chief
Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The application for temporary resident status pursuant to the terms of the settlement agreements reached in Catholic Social Services, Inc., et al., v. Ridge, et al., CIV. NO. [REDACTED] E.D. Cal) January 23, 2004, and Felicity Mary Newman, et al., v. United States Immigration and Citizenship Services, et al., CIV. NO. [REDACTED] (C.D. Cal) February 17, 2004 (CSS/Newman Settlement Agreements), was denied by the District Director, Chicago. The decision is now before the Administrative Appeals Office on appeal. The appeal will be rejected.

The director determined the applicant had not demonstrated that he had continuously resided in the United States in an unlawful status since before January 1, 1982 through the date that he attempted to file a Form I-687, Application for Status as a Temporary Resident, with the Immigration and Naturalization Service or the Service (now Citizenship and Immigration Services or CIS) in the original legalization application period of May 5, 1987 to May 4, 1988. Therefore, the director determined that the applicant was not eligible to adjust to temporary resident status pursuant to the terms of the CSS/Newman Settlement Agreements and denied the application.

An adverse decision on an application for temporary resident status may be appealed to the Administrative Appeals Office. Any appeal with the required fee shall be filed with the Service Center within thirty (30) days after service of the notice of denial. Whenever a person has the right or is required to do some act within a prescribed period after the service of notice upon him and the notice is served by mail, three days shall be added to the prescribed period. Service by mail is complete upon mailing. 8 C.F.R. § 103.5a(b). An appeal received after the thirty-day period has tolled will not be accepted. See 8 C.F.R. § 245a.2(p).

The director issued the notice of denial on September 1, 2005 and mailed it to the applicant's address of record. The appeal was received on November 18, 2005, or 78 days after the notice of denial was issued.<sup>1</sup> Therefore, the appeal was untimely filed, and must be rejected.

ORDER: The appeal is rejected.

<sup>1</sup> The AAO notes that, instead of submitting the appeal on Form I-694, the applicant submitted the appeal on Form I-290B. While this error does not serve as the basis for the AAO's decision to reject the appeal, it is noted for the record.
