Robert P. Wiemann, Chief
Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The application for permanent resident status under the Legal Immigration Family Equity (LIFE) Act was denied by the District Director, Houston, and is now before the Administrative Appeals Office (AAO) on appeal. The appeal will be rejected.

The director found the applicant failed to overcome the reasons for denial expressed in the Notice of Intent to Deny. Specifically, the director found the applicant failed to provide evidence that he entered the United States before January 1, 1982 and continuously resided in the United States since that date to May 4, 1988.

An adverse decision on an application for permanent resident status under the LIFE Act may be appealed to the Administrative Appeals Office. Any appeal filed from within the United States must be received by United States Citizenship and Immigration Services within thirty (30) calendar days after service of the notice of denial (NOD). An appeal received after the thirty-day period has tolled will not be accepted. The 30 day period for submitting an appeal begins 3 days after the NOD is mailed. See 8 C.F.R. § 245a.20(b)(1).

The record reflects that the director sent her decision of April 27, 2005 to the applicant's attorney at her address of record.

The Form I-290B appeal was submitted on June 3, 2005, 37 days after the director's decision. Therefore, the appeal was untimely filed, and must be rejected.

ORDER: The appeal is rejected as untimely filed.
