Robert P. Wiemann, Chief
Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The application for temporary resident status pursuant to the terms of the settlement agreements reached in Catholic Social Services, Inc., et al., v. Ridge, et al., CIV. NO. S-86-1343-LKK (E.D. Cal) January 23, 2004, and Felicity Mary Newman, et al., v. United States Immigration and Citizenship Services, et al., CIV. NO. 87-4757-WDK (C.D. Cal) February 17, 2004 (CSS/Newman Settlement Agreements), was denied by the District Director, Chicago. The decision is now before the Administrative Appeals Office (AAO) on appeal. The appeal will be remanded.

The director denied the application because the applicant failed to establish that she filed a timely written claim for class membership in one of the legalization class action lawsuits.

On appeal, counsel contends that the director erred in denying the instant application by not giving proper weight to the evidence submitted.

The record, as it stands, does not contain any evidence to establish that the applicant had filed a timely written claim for class membership in one of the legalization class action lawsuits. Accordingly, the application is not approvable under 8 C.F.R. § 245a.10.

The record, however, does not reflect that a Notice of Intent to Deny was issued prior to the director's Notice of Decision.

Paragraph 7, page 4 of the CSS Settlement Agreement and paragraph 7, page 7 of the Newman Settlement Agreement both state in pertinent part:

Before denying an application for class membership, the Defendants shall forward the applicant or his or her representative a notice of intended denial explaining the perceived deficiency in the applicant's Class Member Application and providing the applicant thirty (30) days to submit additional written evidence or information to remedy the perceived deficiency.

A review of the record reveals that the district director failed to issue a notice of intent to deny to either the applicant or counsel explaining the perceived deficiency in the applicant's Class Member Application prior to denying the application. If the director finds that an applicant is ineligible for class membership, the director must first issue a notice of intent to deny, which explains any perceived deficiency in the applicant's Class Member Application and provides the applicant 30 days to submit additional written evidence or information to remedy the perceived deficiency. Once the applicant has had an opportunity to respond to any such notice, if the applicant has not overcome the director's finding then the director must issue a written decision to deny an application for class membership to both counsel and the applicant, with a copy to class counsel. The notice shall explain the reason for the denial of the application, and notify the applicant of his or her right to seek review of such denial by a Special Master. CSS Settlement Agreement paragraph 8 at page 5; Newman Settlement Agreement paragraph 8 at page 7.

Accordingly, the case is remanded for issuance of a Notice of Intent to Deny and for the entry of a new decision in accordance with the foregoing.

ORDER: This matter is remanded for further action and consideration pursuant to the above.
