Robert P. Wiemann, Chief
Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The application for temporary resident status pursuant to the terms of the settlement agreements reached in Catholic Social Services, Inc., et al., v. Ridge, et al., CIV. NO. S-86-1343-LKK (E.D. Cal) January 23, 2004, and Felicity Mary Newman, et al., v. United States Immigration and Citizenship Services, et al., CIV. NO. 87-4757-WDK (C.D. Cal) February 17, 2004, (CSS/Newman Settlement Agreements) was denied by the District Director, New York, and is now before the Administrative Appeals Office on appeal. The appeal will be summarily dismissed.

The applicant submitted a Form I-687, Application for Status as a Temporary Resident Under Section 245A of the Immigration and Nationality Act (Act), and a Form I-687 Supplement, CSS/Newman Class Membership Worksheet, on August 18, 2004. The director issued a Notice of Intent to Deny (NOID) to the applicant at his last known address on February 15, 2006. The applicant failed to respond to the NOID. The director denied the application on April 2, 2006, after determining that the applicant had not submitted sufficient evidence to meet his burden of proof, and that he was therefore denying the application for the reasons stated in the NOID.

On appeal, the applicant states that he never received the NOID.

As stated in 8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a)(3)(iv), any appeal which is filed that fails to state the reason for appeal, or is patently frivolous, will be summarily dismissed.

Here, the applicant fails to address the director's concerns. It is noted that there is no evidence in the record to show that the applicant filed an official Change of Address Card with Citizenship and Immigration Services (CIS) prior to the NOID date. It is also noted that the NOID and the director's decision were sent to the applicant's last known address, the same address the applicant used on appeal.

A review of the Notice of Intent to Deny and the director's decision reveals that the director accurately set forth a legitimate basis for denial of the application. On appeal, the applicant has not presented additional evidence to overcome the director's decision. Nor has he specifically addressed the basis for denial. The appeal must therefore be summarily dismissed.

ORDER: The appeal is dismissed. This decision constitutes a final notice of ineligibility.
