IN RE: Applicant: [Redacted]

PETITION: Application for Status as a Temporary Resident pursuant to Section 245A of the Immigration and Nationality Act, as amended, 8 U.S.C. § 1255a

ON BEHALF OF PETITIONER: SELF-REPRESENTED

INSTRUCTIONS:

This is the decision of the Administrative Appeals Office in your case. The file has been returned to the National Benefits Center. If your appeal was sustained, or if the matter was remanded for further action, you will be contacted. If your appeal was dismissed, you no longer have a case pending before this office, and you are not entitled to file a motion to reopen or reconsider your case.

Robert P. Wiemann, Chief
Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The application for temporary resident status was denied by the District Director, Tukwila (Seattle), and is now before the Administrative Appeals Office (AAO) on appeal. The appeal will be summarily dismissed.

The applicant submitted insufficient evidence to credibly document his continuous residence in an unlawful status and his continuous presence in the United States during the relevant period. Specifically, the district director found that the evidence submitted in support of the application was insufficient to establish that the applicant had continuously resided in the United States in an unlawful status since before January 1, 1982 through May 4, 1988. Consequently, the district director issued a Notice of Intent to Deny (NOID) the application on August 10, 2006, and afforded the applicant 30 days in which to submit credible evidence to show that he had continuously resided in the United States during the requisite period. The applicant's response failed to overcome the basis for the director's objections, and consequently the application was denied on January 8, 2007.

On appeal, the applicant submits Form I-290B on which he states, "I Have already submitted my evidence to proof my residency in the U.S.A. . My affidavits affiants are verifiable and could be reached at any time to get my information. I request you to contact my affiant and favour me a positive decision."

As stated in 8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a)(3)(iv), any appeal which is filed that fails to state the reason for appeal, or is patently frivolous, will be summarily dismissed. The applicant's general statement on the Form I-290B, without specifically identifying any errors on the part of the director, is simply insufficient to overcome the well-founded and logical conclusions the director reached based on the evidence submitted by the applicant.

The applicant has failed to address the reasons stated for denial and has not provided any additional evidence on appeal. The appeal must therefore be summarily dismissed.

ORDER: The appeal is dismissed. This decision constitutes a final notice of ineligibility.
